Dustbins & Recycling

There is one main waste collection point on the campsite:
in the stone shelter near the entrance. Here you can deposit general waste, used batteries and dry bread for animals.

Blue bin: cartons

Recycling area in front of the stone shelter:

- Green bin: glass
- Yellow bin: plastic bottles, packaging, tins
- Recovery of empty egg boxes

There are small bins throughout the campsite for small amounts of waste.

Reservation

The campsite is open from March 20th until November 1st 2020.

226 empty pitches for tents, caravans or motor-homes. No pitch available for year rental.

You can request a camping spot online from November 9th 2020.

EXTRACTS FROM OFFICIAL RULES & REGULATIONS

Camping "Cévennes Provence" is a relaxed and a family-friendly camp site.

We ask our clientele to respect the rules for the benefit of all.

Arriving families are received non-stop from 9 am, all the day.
For the well-being of other guests, the campsite must be left before 10 am. If you wish to stay another day at the campsite, an extra night will be charged.

Campsite spots must be paid during office opening times the day before you leave, from 8:30 am to 7:30 pm.

Campers with visitors must inform reception for their stay.

Visitor tax is € 4 per person and € 1 per car. Visitors must leave the campsite no later than 9 pm.

Swimming in the river is not supervised! Please take care and act responsibly.
We recommend locking your bikes to a tree or to your vehicle.

Drive slowly and quietly.
Be careful when driving in the camp site: no speeding, no horns, no unnecessary engine noise.

As a result of a departmental bye-law all wood-fires are forbidden.
Gas and electric barbecues are tolerated at individual camping pitches as long as practical precautions are taken (a cleared area and a bucket of water on hand).
Charcoal barbecues are tolerated only on the 14 communal brick barbecue sites.
In the event of very dry weather, charcoal barbecues may be prohibited.

Do not let children play in the sanitary block or near the water taps.

Respect nature in the camp site as well as in its surroundings.

Away from the washing lines provided, washing should be hung up as discreetly as possible in the sites.
When you leave, clean up your camping place and please don't leave any stones: the mower does not appreciate them!

Dogs must be kept on leashes and are not permitted in the wash-room/toilet facilities, or inside the shop or reception.

There are two rivers near the camping site: dogs are only allowed to swim in the Gardon de Saint Jean du Gard river.

"Poop-scoops" are distributed freely at reception.

Dog shower located at sanitary building n°3.

During the day: radios and music are allowed quietly.

At 10.30 pm: All camp activities stop.

Bar and wi-fi closure.

The lights are turned off.

Silence is compulsory in the whole camp site, in the playground and near the river.

Radios and music are forbidden.

Children and teenagers are the responsibility of their parents.

Quiet hours start at 10.30 pm throughout the campsite. Whether you are with family or friends, please respect your neighbours' holidays.

As well as the penalties provided for by the law, byelaws and decrees, any breach of the rules will lead to the expulsion of the perpetrators from the campsite.
